Dear Community Partner,

Greetings, our agency, The Arc of Mecklenburg County is working to add value to our membership program by partnering with local companies to provide our members with discounts to local area businesses - we would like to invite you to participate and would very much appreciate your support. Our membership base is approximately 150 members, which fluctuates throughout the year and has the potential to increase. Members of our agency are supporters of our efforts to serve children and adults with developmental disabilities here in Mecklenburg County.

The Arc of Mecklenburg County educates, empowers, and advocates for children and adults with developmental disabilities and their families. We have been serving residents of Mecklenburg County since 1953 and are highly respected for the support and assistance that we continue to provide to our clients. The Arc of Mecklenburg County is a 501(c)3 charitable organization.

To learn more about this opportunity we invite you to review the attached information, which highlights the benefits of joining our membership program. For additional information and to discuss this opportunity in greater detail please contact Meika Garner at 704.322.4535 ext. 104 or meika@arcmeck.org.

Sincerely,

Meika Garner
